Community Announcements:

Click here to donate to Rahama Transitional Home

RAHAMA is proud to share the news that we have purchased a building that will house our transitional housing shelter. We would like to share our plans and update you on the work that we have been doing with the women and children that we serve that are victims of family violence.

We hope you will join us for this important meeting. Come see what we are doing and how you can get involved. We look forward to seeing you at this important event.

Best Wishes to you for the New Year!

RAHAMA - Resources and Help Against Marital Abuse

The poster features a vibrant pink and purple color scheme. At the top, there are several butterflies in shades of purple and blue, some with white spots. The background is filled with soft, glowing flowers in various colors, including purple, pink, and white. The text is centered and uses a mix of elegant cursive and clean sans-serif fonts. The overall aesthetic is soft and inviting.

The White House Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders

The White House Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders offers full-time internships year round (spring, summer, and fall). Part-time applicants who can commit to at least 20 hours a week will be considered, although the Initiative prioritizes full-time applicants (32-40 hours a week). Internships are available in Washington, DC at the Initiative headquarters.

improve the quality of life of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders (AAPIs) through increased participation in federal programs. The Initiative is housed at the Department of Education but its scope is government-wide.

Interns at the Initiative are responsible for assisting the staff on a wide range of AAPI issues and priorities, including capacity-building, civil rights, data disaggregation, economic development, education, health, immigration, language access, and workforce diversity. In addition, interns will help write policy memos and proposals, draft blogs, assist with communications and social media, coordinate and staff events, and conduct outreach to national and local AAPI organizations and leaders.

Applicants for intern positions must be undergraduates or graduate students who are enrolled at least half-time. Candidates should be familiar with AAPI issues and have outstanding research, writing, communications, and computer skills.

How to Apply:*

If you are interested in applying, please visit the Department of Education's Internship page for detailed instructions and the internship application.

Additionally, please send the following to WhiteHouseAAPI@ed.gov:

- Resume
- Cover Letter
- Department of Education Internship Application

*(If not accepted to this program, your application may be passed onto other federal agencies for consideration.)

Deadlines:

Please note that the dates below are approximate. Based on a student's availability and school schedule, internships can begin or end before or after the dates indicated below.

- Fall
 - Dates of program: September through December
 - Submission Deadline: July 15
- Winter/Spring
 - Dates of program: January through May
 - Submission Deadline: October 1
- Summer
 - Dates of program: May/June through July/August
 - Submission Deadline: March 15

All applicants must be:

- Authorized to work in the United States

Note: If applicants are not U.S. citizens, but reside in the U.S., the applicant may still be eligible for an internship if the following requirements are met:

- Must have resided in the United States for three (3) out of the last five (5) years. This ensures an adequate background investigation can be completed.
- Must either be a lawful permanent resident of the United States or hold a valid F-1 or J-1 visa or have deferred action (DACA) status.
- Must be enrolled in school in the United States.
- Must be a citizen from a country that is allied with the United States.
 - A current list of allied nations can be located at: <http://www.state.gov/s//treaty/collectivedefense/>
- A requisite investigation must be conducted on all non-U.S. citizen interns. All investigation materials must be submitted and approval granted by the OM Personnel Security Office prior to commencing the internship.

All internship positions at the Initiative are unpaid. The United States Government does not discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, political affiliation, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, disability and genetic information, age, membership in an employee organization, or other non-merit factor.
