In honor of Memorial Day, here's a powerful excerpt from the poem "For the Fallen:" written by Laurence Binyon in 1914.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young.
Straight of limb, true of eyes, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

WNYMuslims commemorates all those brave men and women who served and fought for this country. They might not be with us physically today, but their spirit lives on. They are very much alive in our hearts.
