On Saturday, our Jewish brethren community was shocked by a shooting attack on their house of worship for the second time, within the period of almost 6-months.

This time, the place was Poway, a quiet suburb located in the north of San Diego CA, where a gunman opened fire at a Congregation Chabad at a synagogue during a service on the last day of Passover.

A 60-year-old woman lost her life, 57-year-old rabbi, Yisroel Goldstein, who was also got shot but suffered, what looked like defensive wounds to both of his index fingers, and two other people were left with shrapnel wounds due to this heinous act.

The rabbi called for unity and prayed for peace even after getting shot. He said, "This is something bad (that) is happening all over. And we have to believe that this bad thing is real, and we don't have to ignore it. We have to open our eyes". He prayed for peace. WNYMuslims strongly support the

From this tragedy, both Muslim and Christian faiths believe in humanity and promote unity, peace and forgiveness and consider such tough times as tests from which, our Muslim and Christian communities also went through not long gone, at the time of New Zealand and Sri Lanka tragedies. We are a community-based organization that serves Western New York by creating awareness, encouraging diversity, and providing service. We work to become a platform for both Muslims and non-Muslims alike, encouraging dialogue about important issues so that we may reach more peaceful solutions. We encourage the community to voice and connect by utilizing our website and social media outlets.
