Event Coverage: Fundraising Gala Dinner for Shaukat Khanum Memorial Cancer Hospital 2025

BUFFALO, NY: On Sunday, November 2, 2025, the community came together for an inspiring Fundraising Gala Dinner at Falcon Heights in support of Shaukat Khanum Memorial Cancer Hospital in Karachi. Organized by WNYMuslims & Desi Varsa in collaboration with Imran Khan Cancer Appeal, the evening brought hope and healing to countless cancer patients in Pakistan.

mission to provide free, world-class cancer treatment to underprivileged patients. Attendees were moved by heartfelt testimonials that highlighted the life-saving impact of the hospital's work.

The fundraising segment saw overwhelming generosity through pledges, live donations, and a spirited auction of valuable items, all contributing to this noble cause.

A memorable highlight of the night was the soulful live performance by renowned singer Amanat Ali, whose mesmerizing voice captivated the audience and added a special warmth to the evening.

We extend our deepest gratitude to every attendee, donor, and volunteer who made this event a resounding success. Your unwavering support continues to bring hope to those in need. Together, we are making a difference—one life at a time.

🌙 ✨ The Quiet Month: Spiritual Reflection in Jamadi ul-Awwal ✨ 🌙

Jamadi ul-Awwal is the fifth month in the Islamic lunar calendar, traditionally known as "the first of dry earth," a name that evokes a time of stillness and preparation. Unlike months filled with major commemorations, Jamadi ul-Awwal serves as a period of quiet spiritual continuity within the sacred rhythm of the Islamic year.

It carries historical significance in the chronicles of early Islam, reminding believers that faith is not only celebrated in moments of great joy or mourning but is also sustained through steady devotion in times of calm.

For Muslims, this month offers a valuable opportunity to deepen personal worship, increase Quranic recitation, and engage in consistent acts of
