Keeping the Community Aware Since 2005

Vol. 16/ No. 29

We would like to wish the Muslim community our heartiest Eid and Hajj greetings and hope that everyone makes the most of the blessed opportunity. Eid is a joyous occasion with social gatherings, things are much better now and life is getting back to normal as far as the pandemic is concerned.

We pray to the Almighty for the repentance of our sins, and may we be the atrocities and calamities from the race of the world and protect us and our loved ones for them, and enable us to celebrate these festive moments with the same fervor and enthusiasm. Aameen.

Our special prayers are for the people and their bereaved families who couldn't survive the pandemic and for the quick recovery of the ones who got affected by the deadly ailment. Aameen
